The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Department of Public Safety, Division of Adult Corrections and Juvenile Justice, Juvenile Community Programs section in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2016-2017 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2016. The use of these funds in this county requires a local match in the amount specified above. The County reserves the right to reject any and/or all responses.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Psychological and Substance Abuse Evaluations	Restitution/Community Service	Social Skill Building Groups
Cognitive Behavioral Treatment	Mixed Counseling	Teen Court
Temporary Shelter Services	Group Counseling	Mentoring
	Family Counseling	Substance Abuse Treatment
	Sex Offender Specific Evaluations

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

Youth who have moderate and serious school behavior problems, lack pro-social peers or associating with delinquent peers/criminal activity, who have been adjudicated for prior crimes, who are involved in affrays or assaultive behavior, substance use or abuse and have parent/guardian who have difficulty providing adequate supervision.

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Youth who lack pro-social peers, sometimes or regularly associate with delinquent peers.

Individual Domain: Substance use or abuse, have a history of abuse or neglect with a history of victimization, have mental health needs.

Family Domain: Youth who reside in homes where domestic discord or violence is present, have parents who have marginal parenting skills, have family members who have current or past involvement in the criminal justice system.

School Domain: Youth who have moderate to serious school behavior issues.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individual, if applicable.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
